

BIM Management Certificate Training

Frequently Asked Questions

What qualifications does the Trainer have?

Our trainer has over 5 years of hands on BIM experience and is a RICS Certified BIM Manager with experience writing specialized BIM Training Courses in the UK and Australia. Our trainer is fully qualified with experience on delivering economic returns using BIM practises on real life design and construction projects.

Can I do just part of the course?

No, the course is a carefully structured course to teach the true meaning, principles and concepts of Building Information Modelling (We don't do BITZA BIM)

I'm quite proficient in BIM. Can I just sit the assessment and get my certificate?

No, you would still need to pay the full fee for the whole training course, even if you only wish to attend the assessment.

Can I get a discount on the course fee?

Rebates are available for CITB members. Our training courses are tax deductible as business expenses, however you should seek independent financial advice on how this would apply to your unique situation. Groups of 4 or more from the same organization may be eligible for a group discount.

Will I learn how to use software in this course?

No, this training focuses specifically on the processes and management systems required to effectively implement BIM on real life projects in a way that will deliver a return on your investment. This training is not software focused, it is focused on how to manage people, systems and processes with a proven BIM methodology to deliver commercial returns. We do however have specialized software training courses. You can find more information on our software based courses at redstack.com.au/training

Can I transfer my registration to a course to another state?

Yes, you are welcome to attend the course in any state. If you are claiming the CITB subsidy, check with us to clarify how this may impact your ability to claim a rebate.

What is the format of the assessment?

The 3 hour open book assessment covers 76 multiple choice questions.

What is the pass rate for the assessment?

75%

What happens if I don't pass the course?

If you do not achieve the 75% minimum pass grade you will receive a certificate of participation only. Only those who pass the course will receive a framed "Certificate of Completion".

If I fail the assessment, do I need to do the full course again or just the assessment?

It is advisable to re-sit the course again at 50% of the full course fee. However, you can choose to re-sit the assessment only at 25% of the full course fee.

What is the cost?

$2,990 + GST per attendee.
